1. It is reported that the leaders of the SED have information that no military action is planned by the Russians in consequence of the prospective signing of the contractual agreement between West Germany and the western Allies.
2. However, an immediate blockade of Berlin has been decided upon. The SED and the Russians have agreed that the blockade is to be extended to the air corridors.
3. Some 10,000 armed members of the People's Police were transferred from Saxony and Thuringia to East Berlin and its vicinity during the second week of May.
